

One Heart Beating

Better Than Ezra

There's a treasure in the wreckage of your soul, oh
A drum machine buried deep beneath the snow, oh
There's a blinding light shining through these bloodshot eyes
There's a silent sound keeping you awake at night

And it's one heart beating, oh, oh
And it's one heart beating, oh, oh

Rock steady, I don't ever wanna sleep , oh
My blood is burning and they're fighting in the streets, oh
There's a light ahead and it's coming straight for you
Like a tidal wave, now there's nothing you can do

And it's one heart beating, oh, oh
And it's one heart beating, oh, oh

Shine a light on love
Shine a light on love
Shine a light on love
Shine a light on love
Shine a light on love
Shine a light on love
Shine a light on love
Shine a light on love

(Shine a light on love)
And it's one heart beating, oh, oh
(Shine a light on love)
Shine a light on love)
And it's one heart beating, oh, oh
(Shine a light on love)
Shine a light on love)
And it's one heart beating, oh, oh
(Shine a light on love)
Shine a light on love)
And it's one heart beating, oh, oh
(Shine a light on love)
