

The Loveless

Better Than Ezra

Tell me I'm wrong,
You sense a little bit of change,
You knew all along there'd come a day you'd have to face.
I hear a loud voice in my head,
full of the things I never said.

So tell me whose gonna love the loveless,
whose gonna love the loveless,
whose gonna love the loveless when you're gone.

What can I say, you pick this wreck up off the ground.
Your melody chased away all of the noise that kept us down.
I think you'll find they might've found,
when you're in need no one's around.

So tell me whose gonna love the loveless,
whose gonna love the loveless,
whose gonna love the loveless when you're gone.

If you wanna be in love,
if you wanna get free,
if you wanna get something for nothing then talk to me,
if you wanna get love,
if you wanna get free,
if wanna be something to someone then come to me.

So tell me whose gonna love the loveless,
whose gonna love the loveless,
whose gonna love the loveless when you're gone.

(if you wanna get free)

I said whose gonna love the loveless,
whose gonna love the loveless,
whose gonna love the loveless when you're gone.

(when you need someone)

So if you wanna get love,
if you wanna get free,
if you wanna get something for nothing then come to me.

Whose gonna love the loveless when you're gone.
