Recall

Bettie Serveert

Tunes, thumping like a symphony. Playing in my mind, I play it all the time. Please, you don't know what this means to me. It's something in a dream, or somewhere in between. And as I lay me down to sleep, I pary the Lord my soul to keep recalling.

I will recall him. Seven wonders, seven signs, slip into the skies at night, I will, I will recall him. And on and off, like a neon sign, it goes on and off, a faucet in my mind, recall, recall, recalling.

Distant life on the bottom side. I've got a chiselled lie, hiding down my mind, I fall, I fall, I'm falling. I fall - I fall - I'm fall - I'm falling.

Distant life on the good old site. You take another look, the teaser's on my mind. Recall, recall, recalling. Soon, heading for the pharmacy. I don't know what is wrong with me, somewhere down the line.

True, looking at the funny side, I guess I'm never satisfied, with anything I do. But as I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep recalling. I will recall him. But on and off, like a neon sign, it goes on and off, a faucet in my mind, recall, recall, recalling.

Distant life on the bottom side, I've got a chiselled lie, hiding down my mind, I fall, I fall, I'm falling. I fall - I fall - I'm fall - I'm falling. Distant life on the good old side.

You take another look, the teaser's down my mind, recall, recalling.
