

Something So Wild

Bettie Serveert

She has three more lovers, but they all got cold feet, and I know that there were others, but she's so discrete.

Yet a wave of his hand's enough to get her back again

She made it thru high school and she's got a degree and in many different ways she's a lot smarter than me.

Yet a wave of his hand's enough
to get her back again

I despise every word that he speaks,
'cause he tries to make her feel weak.
And he put's her down in public and he treats her like a child, but he'll never make a lapdog out of something so wild.

Yet a wave of his hand's enough
to get her back again

I tried to convince her to make it on her own, but she's afraid to be a spinster, afraid to be alone.

Yet a wave of his hand's enough
to get her back again

I despise every word that he speaks,
'cause he tries to make her feel weak.
And he put's her down in public
and he treats her like a child,
but he'll never make a lapdog
out of something so wild.

Yet a wave of his hand's enough
to get her back again

I despise every move that he makes,
'cause I know what he's trying to brake
And he put's her down in public
and he treats her like a child,
but he'll never make a lapdog
out of something so wild.

Yet a wave of his hand's enough
to get her back again
