

Frankie

Betty Blowtorch

Patty Patterson was my best friend
We shared everything 'til the bitter end
Out diaries, out secrets, our fantasies
I never thought she'd do this to me

Frankie was my boyfriend, he's a good looking guy
Had a great smile and pretty green eyes
I told her everything that fulfilled his needs
That two-timeing bitch betrayed me

My boyfriend left me for the girl next door
My boyfriend left me for the girl next door
My boyfriend left me for the girl next door
My boyfriend left me

My ex-friend was five foot four
She was so stacked, she couldn't see the floor
When I saw Frankie's car in her driveway
I never thought it would end up this way

My boyfriend left me for the girl next door
My boyfriend left me for the girl next door
My boyfriend left me for the girl next door
My boyfriend left me

Get your own man, hooker!
I thought you were my best friend

He cheated and he left me for that bitch next door
She was my best friend, but now she's a whore
I lost my best friend and my boyfriend too
It's a sad story, too bad it's true

My boyfriend left me for the girl next door
My boyfriend left me for the girl next door
My boyfriend left me for the girl next door
My boyfriend left me
