

Missing You

Betty Who

Can you hear my voice break
Can you hear my heart bake
Let you know my hands shake
Love
I can hear you whisper
I can hear that it burns
And I know that this hurts
Love

Picture you kissing me as were falling asleep
Oh this feeling is marrow deep

You call and all I wanna do now
Is be there with you
You say that I'm your beautiful
I'm your beautiful love
Oh I'm missing you
I'm missing you

I don't wanna wait for
Us to be together
Everyday is torture
Love
You know that the one place
I can really feel safe
Is thinking of your face
Love

Picture you on the floor
Your watching the door
I know who you're waiting for

You call and all I wanna do now
Is be there with you
You say that I'm your beautiful
I'm your beautiful love
Oh I'm missing you
I'm missing you

I'm missing you
I'm missing you
I'm missing you
I'm missing you

Promise that I will be
Seeing you in my dreams
Tell me that you love me
Love

You call and all I wanna do now
Is be there with you
You say that I'm your beautiful
I'm your beautiful love
Oh I'm missing you
I'm missing you

I'm missing you

I'm missing you
I'm missing you
I'm missing you
