

Reunion

Betty Who

God, it feels like it's been forever
How you been? Did you get my letters?
I tried to call a thousand times
But I'm so bad at apologizin'

I threw out the last of your t-shirts
You got yourself a girl last that I heard
I told myself a thousand times
That I'd grow up and I'd be fine

But now you're smiling, and I'm only human
Baby, I missed you every single day
It's been a while, but in our reunion
I can't remember why you went away
So what comes next? Could we ever be together again?
But I got this feeling that there's a reason
It's a reunion, not a getaway

Hid our box of pictures together
Closed the lid and broke our "forever"
I finally got you out my mind
Forgetting took the longest time

But now you're smiling, and I'm only human
Baby, I missed you every single day
It's been a while, but in our reunion
I can't remember why you went away
So what comes next? Could we ever be together again?
But I got this feeling that there's a reason
It's a reunion, not a getaway

And we might never, never know, never, never know
Why we lost forever, ever, forever, ever
But I can't say goodbye

But now you're smiling, I'm only human
Maybe I miss you every single day
It's been a while, but in our reunion
I can't remember why you went away
So what comes next? Could we ever be together again?
But I got this feeling that there's a reason
It's a reunion, not a getaway

Yeah, I can't remember why you went away
Yeah, It's a reunion, not a getaway
