

Where Is The Love

Betty Wright

Where is the love
Where is the love
You promised me

You said I could have
All your loving
If I wanted it
You'd give it to me

Now when it's down
To the real nitty gritty
You're hiding your love from me

Wanna know

Gotta know

You said I'd be the only one
That you'd be giving
Your sweet love to

Somebody else must be
Getting your love
'Cause loving me
You just don't do, no, no

You know I need it, baby

Tired of waiting
On your love now, baby
Where is your love

I'm hurting for
Your love now, baby
Where is your love

Baby, baby, baby, baby
Baby, baby, oh
Where is the love

I got to know

Don't tell me you're going
Back on your promises, baby
I got to have it
You know I need it

You know I want it
I got to have it, baby
Oh, ho, oh, hey, hey, baby

Where is the love
Got to know
Where is the love
You told me you were
Gonna give it to me

Where is the love
Where is the love, woo
Where is the love
You said was mine

I gotta know now, hey
I gotta know now
I gotta know, oh, oh
Hey, hey, hey

Where is the love you said
You were gonna give to me
Oh, oh, oh, hey, hey, hey
Come on, I need it
I got to have it, woo hoo
Yeah, hey, hey
