

Burned By The Sun

Beulah

High above the border town
I can see the golden ground
If I wasn't looking down,
I might have lost you in the miles

Ocean blue and foaming white
Surround the body of my flight
'Cause I flew out of sight
You were turning in the stars

And I know what it means to you,
And I know what it means to me,
And I know how it feel to be burned by the sun
The sun, I love the sun

Now I'm sleeping on the sand
Of an unfamiliar land
And I'm dreaming up a plan
To get you on a breeze

And I'm staring at the speck
Of the map laid on the deck
It's time to make a trek
On forgiving seas

And I know what it means to you,
And I know what it means to me,
And I know how it feel to be burned by the sun
The sun, I love the sun

And I know what it means to you,
And I know what it means to me,
And I know we all want to be
Burned by the sun
