

Delta

Beulah

Being young's romantic
The tourists smile and say cheese
It's sad when you're just a postcard Dolores has got herself a lie

Frozen you last forever Got Shakespeare in the personals
Our palms read fragile lifelines that stretch a hundred miles or more

And hey, love, don't cha think about me sometimes Think about you way more than I'd like
And hey, love, don't cha think about me sometimes
Think about you way more than I'd like

Hey big eyes got such keen eyes

Try so hard ya try so hard
ya try so hard
ya try so hard

From all of my friends
all of my friends

Try so hard ya try so hard
ya try so hard
ya try so hard
(try to fall for stranger)

Kiss just like a car crash
It's where the air breathes easier
You missed the whole first chapter
The stories were etched in the cement

Pullin' out the compass We're right back where we started from If it's any consolation Remember we're fucked up together so far

And hey, love, don't cha think about me sometimes
Think about you way more than I'd like
And hey, love, don't cha think about me sometimes
Think about you way more than I'd like

Hey keen eyes
Got such big eyes

Try so hard ya try so hard
ya try so hard
ya try so hard

From all of my friends
all of my friends

ya try so hard
(try to fall for stranger)
