

Me And Jesus Don't Talk Anymore

Beulah

Don't be sad that I'm going
Don't be sad that I'm going
Don't be sad that I'm going
Cause I leave tonight

Can you give me that, friend?
Without a soul to sell along the way
The devil rides with me again
He always says everything's okay

And maybe I'm losing sleep over nothing
Maybe I'll be just fine
He's tears me away from all those little things
That seemed so important when I knew you

And though we are falling stars
We feel just fine
And though it seems we're not far
We need more time

And can you give me that, friend?
You know the devil holds a lease
And so hard to get man
It's been twenty years since I've been clean

Maybe I'm losing sleep over nothing
He tells me I'll just be fine
He's in my blood
He's thicker than blood
He seems so important
And you keep fading

And though we are falling stars
We feel just fine
And though it seems we're not far
We need more time

Woke up today
Just called to say
Your body's cold and you're going nowhere
Woke up today
Just called to say
Your body's cold, you're going nowhere

Oh, you're going nowhere
Oh, you're going nowhere
Oh, you're going nowhere
