

All Who Remain

Beware of Darkness

Tell the one above he's a criminal
For taking and giving life like marble candy.
Everything collapses around me,
Overwhelms and astounds me
A terrible truth.

When you leave this life, the world will be a darker place
For all who remain...
When you leave this life, the world will be a darker place
For all who remain...
And the light you gave the human race will go away..

I see you every time that I close my eyes,
I hum every lullaby that you used to sing.
You never know the last time you'll see someone,
So give them all of your love,
Cos they'll disappear.

When you leave this life, the world will be a darker place
For all who remain...
When you leave this life, the world will be a darker place
For all who remain...
And the light you gave the human race will go away..

If I can't have you in this life,
Then I don't want this life at all,
Cos there's nothing in this broken world
That I'll ever, ever love as much.

I called, and I called, but you never picked up,
And I cried, and I cried, but you never woke up,
And you died, and died without asking me first,
You left me all alone here on Earth.

When you leave this life, the world will be a darker place
For all who remain...
When you leave this life, the world will be a darker place
For all who remain...
When you leave this life, the world will be a darker place
For all who remain...
When you leave this life, the world will be a darker place
For all who remain...

We are all, we are all who remain.
We are all, we are all who remain.
