

End Of The World

Beware of Darkness

It's the end of the world...

If you cross my lord, he'll kill you dead.
Annihilate a planet, just cos you can.
They relocated heaven, and I'm not telling you where.

Down in the basement, dodging bombs.
Don't look at my child wrong, you pedophile.
If you think we hit rock bottom, well you best of look down.

Maybe it's the future coming?

It's alright.
The world is ending every time we close our eyes,
So let's hold hands and die tonight.

It's the end of the world...
It's the end of the world...
And tonight I want to be with you.

Genuflect and load your gun.
You can do anything if it's for god.
I'm entitled to this life and you are not,
So step back now.

Resist the change, anyway you can,
Be afraid of what you don't understand,
Lock your doors and hide in fear,
Cos culture bomb is here.

Maybe it's the future coming?

It's alright.
The world is ending every time we close our eyes,
So let's hold hands and die tonight.

It's the end of the world...
It's the end of the world...
It's the end of the world...
It's the end of the world...

It's alright.
The world is ending every time we close our eyes,
So let's hold hands and die tonight.

It's the end of the world...
And tonight I want to be with you.
It's the end of the world...
And tonight I want to be with you.
It's the end of the world...
And tonight I want to be with you.
It's the end of the world...
And tonight I want to be with you.
