

Salvation Is Here

Beware of Darkness

Dying is done,
More than you will ever, ever, ever, ever know.
Your prayers, hymns, faith, and fairytales in life all paid off

Fighting is done.
Your parents still love each other here.
No black eyes, blood or bruises, child you're safe now, welcome home.

No, we will not find heaven, however hard we try.
If we do not leave this place, leave this place tonight.

Salvation is here.
Open up your heart without fear.
Salvation is here.
Open up your heart without fear.
Without fear...

Hiding is done.
People here will love you for who you are.
We all know that you drink too much to cover it all up.

Emptiness is here.
Everyone is numb with content,
So sit, smile, pose, relax for eternal rest.

No, we will not find heaven, however hard we try.
If we do not leave this place, leave this place tonight.

Salvation is here.
Open up your heart without fear.
Salvation is here.
It's everything we never wanted, wasn't it dear?

Salvation is here...
