

Elusive Reverence

Beyond Creation

We, the world, exhausted souls, slaves from those paths
We've grown to become reflections of our souls
Physionomical creations

Philosophical imitations, we learn, we trust but we'll never know,
We'll never really know

Man behaves, in ecliptic situations
Forgetting this mind's progression we all worked for

Philosophical imitations, we learn, we trust but we'll never know,
We'll never really know

Human decline, universe phenomena
Protection of his own is pure evidence of inequality

Face yourself, regarding this above criticalism perspective
These energizm vibrations are powerful evolutions of itself...
Pure power
Involving with this emergence perseverance,
You've created an objective realization of your mind.
