

Close Your Eyes

Bic Runga

Close your eyes
Goddess everywhere at once
Don't you realize?
We are the luckiest ones

Dress so fine
People wonder who we are
And heaven is all mine
Wonder whenever we are

Day after day
I still want you, want you
Night after night
I still want you, want

Close your eyes
People think the craziest thoughts
But we should never mind
We'll do whatever we want

Dress so fine
He'll disarm a wounded heart
The world is much too wide
I can not bear when we part

Day after day
I still want you, want you
Night after night
I still want you, want

Day after day
I still want you, want you
Night after night
I still want you, want

Close your eyes
Goddess everywhere at once
Don't you realize?
We are the luckiest ones
