

My Bike

Bif Naked

the last time i fell in love she had red, red, hair and a ring in her lip she called me "jellybean" while playing basketball it was so divine... but never like this!

and you are my entity
you are my dream
yeah you're my dream:

lazy saturday like a kitten in the sunshine warm as arkansas i was your tires with rose water after the mud bog i bathe you in my love you are my entity

you are my dream...

remember the first time i met you and i spilled apple juice all over you and you were all wet and sticky and i took you and i rolled you through the forest through the mud and leaves and tied you to a tree and you liked it next time i met you i sat on you and rolled and rolled and rolled back to the forest in the mud in the leaves and i tied you to that same tree and you liked it in my dream

you are my dream
you are my entity
you're my dream...
(yes, i like my bike that much!)
