

Yeah, You

Bif Naked

Now that I've got you alone,
There's something I wanna say.
A secret I have kept awhile.
But it feels right and I feel safe.

I know I am right.
I know this is the night.

Yeah, you; Making me come all undone.
Yeah, you; You have become,
The only one I will ever love.

Now that I've given myself,
Is there something that you wanna say?
Without you, I'd be unwell.
And it seems right and I feel safe.
