Bonanzoid Deathgrip

Biffy Clyro

I'm not eager to achieve your life skills So, I slow down and scratch the itch between my chin and nose We're melting at sea, we're melting at sea

Why do you take everything I say the wrong way?

I've built a black hearted girl without any soul or life inside So I can settle down with what a stranger would call my soul ma te We're melting at sea, we're melting at sea

Why do you take everything I say the wrong way? Why do you take everything I say the wrong way?

Vacate the vacancy Stroll through the mystery bazaar

To all concerned Find a gun, find a reason Help us come undone To all concerned Focus your anger and stop feasting Like a fucking animal

Vampires: they make their money at the blood bonanza Vampires: they make their money at the blood bonanza

Disengage the deathgrip It's a risk worth taking

So, you lay there like a dying worm, brains all gone Disslocate and suffer Fed up of choking on worthless blood She's like a fucking crippled animal
