

Boooooom, Blast & Ruin

Biffy Clyro

I've had enough
You burn the bridge I'll cut the boat in half Control
I've said enough, you keep the secrets I know you'll never spill
Sold
Boom, blast and ruin girl
Causes distractions
You're rooted in hell
I can't surprise you girl, the truth is in motion
You cover it well but you're praying for some action so you won't Realise
You used to be wrong, I used to be right
I flick the switch
I wake up in a corpse of sweat and tears
Soaked
I swallow truths
We fit like ice cream on an open wound
It soothes
Sink like cathedrals girl
Into the ocean
We rise like the sun!
