

Eye Lids

Biffy Clyro

You are
My lover
You are my lover

If you're really in love
Then baby, gonna show me
It's real tough when you're not around
The cradle it swings
In rhythm to your pulses
It seems to be the day to jump down

The dreams are old and they've
Divided the two of us
Exposing the both of us
Taken to the fire
Something's got a hold of
My heart, it's bitter

I'm her burst of clarity
Take it to the cornerstone
I'm her burst of clarity
Let them all roam
You're gonna find out, baby
How you make me feel
It's just the two of us swinging
From the branches of this tree

She's not got her eyelids
So she can see everything
But she's invisible to the touch
If you're crazy in love
Then baby, gonna hold me
Stuck in the middle

The dreams are old and they've
Divided the two of us
Exposing the both of us
Taken to the fire
Something's got a hold of
My heart, still bitter

I'm her burst of clarity
Take it to the cornerstone
I'm her burst of clarity
Let them all roam
You're gonna find out, baby
How you make me feel
It's just the two of us swinging
From the branches of this tree

Listen to the beat
I can't see her eyes
She can see everything

You are
My lover
You are my lover
