

Only One Word Comes to Mind

Biffy Clyro

This time
it's now or never the ones we are supposed to bow to

In time we all crawl believe in believe in me

In time we all fall through her fingers
It's alright to hide away
underneath the ocean

Open up the way
I have to feel right

In time we all saw Him open up her

These words won't help you
If you're looking for answers
These words won't help you

It's alright to hide away
Underneath the ocean
Open up the way
I have to feel right
