

President

Big D And The Kids Table

Good morning mr. president
Yes, I've seen you on tv
I'm excited you're gunna change (change) my life yea, what you say sounds good to me [chorus]
Hey hey president
Yeah you president
You're full yeah, you're full of shit, yeah, shit, yeah, yeah y ou're full of shit
what the hell are you doing in there?
Nah, not another speech for me
Your neutral voice, and cold robotic stare Man, you don't care about anything [chorus]
guilty, guilty government says, don't do drugs Makes the laws then arrests us all
But all day long, the words are you see,
We are an expense
Its not them, its me [chrous]
already slaves, got us locked real tight 10 hours a day, too tired to fight
You got us buying, better money and drink
Ah man, no time to think [chours]
