

The One

Big D And The Kids Table

I know you wanna love her for the rest of your life
But man, this woman her intentions ain't right
Tell me brothers am I right?
That woman is trouble you've got to wake up

I know I know
That everytime I speak she rolls her eyes and shakes her head,
Says baby no one will know you said
I know I know
That I should let you live and love yourself
But it is hard when your laughter is now dead

So if you think your days are dark you better wait
And if you think your smile has not faded 'way
So if you're sick of crying then you better wait, wait
Wait, wait, wait
No need to hurry now

I know you wanna love her for the rest of your life
But man, this woman her intentions ain't right
Tell me brothers am I right?
That woman is trouble you've got to wake up

I know you wanna love her for the rest of your life
But man, when she gets on you it's such a bad sight
Tell me brothers am I right?
That woman is trouble you've got to wake up

But what if I get lost? And what if I can't find?
A girl to take care of, a girl to be just mine
But what if I get lost? And what if I can't find?
A girl to take care of, a girl to be just mine

And if you keep that smile then you'll find a way
And if you keep your sun out then you'll find a way
And if you keep the pressure down you'll find a way, way, way, way, way
Until you're ready now

I know you wanna love her for the rest of your life
But man, this woman her intentions ain't right
Tell me brothers am I right?
That woman is trouble you've got to wake up

I know you wanna love her for the rest of your life
But man, there are much kinder girls here tonight
Tell me brothers am I right?
That woman is trouble you've got to wake up

I'm looking 'round tonight, oh, there are kinder girls here tonight, tonight
, oh
I'm looking 'round tonight, oh, there are much kinder girls here tonight, oh

I know you wanna love her for the rest of your life
But man, this woman her intentions ain't right
Tell me brothers am I right?
That woman is trouble you've got to wake up

I know you wanna love her for the rest of your life
But man, when she gets on you it's such a bad sight
Tell me brothers am I right?
That woman is trouble you've got to wake up

I know you wanna love her for the rest of your life
But man, there are much kinder girls here tonight
Tell me brothers am I right?
That woman is trouble you've got to wake up

No need to worry now, the one will come around
No need to worry now, the one will come around
