

Be Your Everything

Big Daddy Weave

When you're lost and all alone
I will be your sure way home
When you're left out in the cold
I will be your shelter from the storm

When you're clouded by your doubt
When you're surrounded
And there's no other way out
I will be all that you need
And I'm here for the asking

Let me be your everything
Let me be your everything
Look at all that I will bring
In exchange for what you have
Let me be your everything

When you're wanderin' in the darkness
I will be the light that guides you
And when death is standin' at your doorway
I will be the life inside you

When you face your deepest fears
When you can't see through all the tears
I will stay year after year
So patiently waitin', hear me say

Let me be your everything
Let me be your everything
Look at all that I will bring
In exchange for what you have

So, bring your sorrow bring your shame
All your sufferin' and your pain
Don't you know the price is paid
If only you'll let me be

Neither height nor depth, nor life nor death
The Angels above or the demons beneath the sea
Could ever separate you from
The love in me, so won't you

Let me be your everything
Let me be your everything
Look at all that I will bring
In exchange for what you have

So, bring your sorrow bring your shame
All your sufferin' and your pain
Don't you know the price is paid
If only you'll let me be
If only you'll let me be
Let me be your everything
Your everything
