

Annie's Needle

Big Drill Car

Annie's Needle is the story
Of a girl in search of love
And when she missed it at ground level
She looked for it up above, yeah
She fired up, with her thumb touch (a firm touch, friend tux)??
Cause they're the best friends
And Annie's Needle is now (regressions) (... now her ???)
Confessions with long sleeves can only hide (get loaded high)
A life lived by no discretion
She couldn't have kicked it if she'd tried, no
She fired up, with her thumb touch
Cause they're the best friends
Until her bitter end
Annie should have seen it coming
But her friend had Annie blind
She was so weak and so strung out
No one was surprised to hear Annie died, no
She fired up, with her thumb touch
Cause they're the best friends
Until her bitter end
