

Oh Lord, bathe me in flame.
Coronary worm food blistering through endtrails, vomiting it's liver into a pool of pus, and larva feed, entering with fingers, sowing into death,
reaping all the sins into the heart of the salivator

Burgalveist
and throwing numbers,
human insanity,
with glowing forehead
and draining monkey.

Blowing smolder,
it rebuilds it's stomach then it starts to feed gorging down the gullet loads of necroma stic rot....
slipping in the blood and bile, suffer now with Scott and Kyle, hosing off the requiem, and bathe we in flame...

Burgalveist and throwing numbers, human insanity,
with glowing forehead,
and draining monkey - Salivator!
