

ICU In Everything

Big Head Todd and the Monsters

Well I'm finished counting.
Another game of hide and seek.
I hear you running.
I can feel your heartbeat now.
There ain't nothing that's gonna keep me from discovering.
You know I'm panting.
I'll drink from your loving spring.

Missing you is ecstasy
I see you in everything.
Wanting you ain't suffering.
I see you in everything.

Understanding
Things ain't what they seem to be.
All my planning
Left me on the wrong street now.
I don't need another one who's gonna shelter me.
So come on baby, the cabby is waiting and the meter is on.

Missing you is ecstasy
I see you in everything.
Wanting you ain't suffering.
I see you in everything.

And if we hesitate we might never know.
So what if a heart should break
We've been there before.
So let it grow.

I turn around
And then I find you
Lord have mercy
I was looking in the wrong direction
Spellbound
Time reminds you,
Now you better take it cause this loving is real

Missing you is ecstasy
I see you in everything.
Wanting you ain't suffering.
I see you in everything.
