

Peacemaker's Blues

Big Head Todd and the Monsters

Time will play no games for free.
Like a speeding train rusting in the sea.
Maybe you are lost, maybe set free.

You and I ain't such good friends,
When peace on earth can't be found.
When angels can't keep us from shaking the ground.

Hey, you have to laugh out loud,
At those who are always so strong and right.
Now you don't know forgiveness without a fight.
