Don't you wanna rest off in this glass house

If I let you ride set that ass out

Don't play me like no trick that's just so overrated

All this superbassin' woofer quakin' got you motivated

Haters screamin' favors never stopped me

Sucker motherfuckers never blocked me
Poppin' trunk, droppin' top as I beat the bass
If you don't know what KRIT mean by now then bitch you super late
Po' another fo' up to recuperate
If pimpin' was a blood sport I kick it like a kumite
Working boppers on the field like it's 2 a day
Three a day, 4 a day, any day a pro say
Shake it for a player, let me see it
If you lookin' for a southern country bumpkin let me be it
You say you ridin' and you down for the smashin'
So what you mean, what you mean, what you mean

What you mean you ain't nasty Why the fuck you came Why the fuck you came Why, why the fuck you came What you mean you ain't nasty Why the fuck you came Don't you see the grill Candy on the frame What you mean you ain't nasty Why the fuck you came Why the fuck you came Why, why the fuck you came What you mean you ain't nasty Why the fuck you came Don't be pushin' on my buttons Wait a minute motherfucker
