

Caribbean Blue

Big Mountain

I want to know
Where did she go?
I'm in a limbo
Where did she go?

You left me Caribbean Blue
I've got the sunshine, but I haven't got you
Left my paradise alone
And one more sunset to face on my own

I drawn my sorrows in the garden of despair
Trying to wash away the memories of you there
I walk the beaches and I tell it to the moon
But there's no salvation here, the morning comes too soon

I've got the sunshine, but I haven't got you
Left my paradise alone
And one more sunset to face on my own

You gave me so much that I can't replace
Now it's cold and lonely here in this summer place
Scared by the problems of an ego that's been burned
So many lessons now that a foolish hardly learned

I've got the sunshine, but I haven't got you
Left my paradise alone
And one more sunset to face on my own

A prisoner of the memories I can find
On this tropical night

I watch the ocean and I search inside myself
What did I do to make you run to someone else
It's funny how you want the things you haven't got
I heard that time can heal but still the pain won't stop

I've got the sunshine, but I haven't got you
Left my paradise alone
And one more sunset to face on my own

I've got the sunshine, but I haven't got you
Left my paradise alone
And one more sunset to face on my own...
