

Wishful Thinking

Big Punisher

What would you do if you could do the unbelievable Once you rule the world every girl will want to be with you
First I get the money then I get the power B-Real of the hill eliminate the guitars

Thinkin' of takin' a plane to take a flight out to the red light and smuggle 10 pounds of weed make it home tonight be the number 1 smuggler in the area got enough weed to fill up an air craft carrier erb slanger, Hasila Incorporated state to state and over seas gettin' faded Buddha king had seen the green proton I'm bringing it on right back home to Don many different strains of erb in my brain I'm slippin' through customs in my hydro plane skunk and the one chocolate ty bud niggaz lets get high in the sky hit the blunts and the bongz, fill up the lungs, niggaz don't stop fools get sprung when they get there smoked up for crops like gettin' props, where all the soldiers in the board yo what would you do if the world was yours.

What would you do if you could do the unbelievable
Once you rule the world every girl would want to be with you
First I get the money then I get the power Joey crack twist the caps enemies I devour Yo it's only a dream 16 battin' Beamers and Benz's lying penance with diamonds ill as lacin' in a face with avengances having blocks on in the lava parts dome my mankind with crime is how you shine if you can't rhyme dime droppers will give your fad time if you sleep but momma single be mastera heater on city streets in the east I be known as Don Cartegena claimin' the throne like Calderon in this heroin arena lacin' the china wit Menida to seller need repeater or be a leader like a preacher or presume a steeper peep the shit that I be on, sippin' Don until I'm drunk with a million in my trunk like Nikki Vons come on I be the top extortionist adopt adopted foster kids right out the motherfucking' orphanage yea, I do it for the youth, I'm livin' proof all my peeps in the streets know I speak the truth.

What would you do if you could do the unbelievable
Once you rule the world every girl would want to be with you
First you get the money then you get the power G Rap bustin' the gats slangin' last by every hour

No doubt,
I be the crime story of all ghetto territories soldiers at war be blowin' up niggaz like glory with pharmaceutical lavatories major to chemistry, PHD in streetology degree in drug industry combinin' H₂O with matter from crack batter rest it through molecules scatter launchin' rockets to make the pocket fatter mind bitin' an arm starts a crime G equals and MC that ain't near the square son I gets mine but yo the kill the fill with force fields and shields and holy steel, a nigga keep it real you know the deal, if the stakes ain't to high for me to grab I got to have, stack all the cabbage from constructin' a drug traffic police a jam me in try to find a new pot to frame me in Aramians so I resort the evil thoughts like Damien this flame of fury to the D-A and the jury 100 grand the judges hammer slams I'm a free man.

What would you do if you could do the unbelievable
Once you rule the world every girl would want to be with you
First you get the money then you get the power Big Pun's the same son bustin' my guns for the Dollars

Yo, I'm walkin' waters spit fire and shit H₂en-Dazs idolize no man like Conan and stand beside the guards be larger than life, twice as nice as your idol pump you with pride, then guide you straight to hell like the bible I'm libe to start manipulatin' minds infiltratin' clown 'm out the pitfalls of life entice with nickle plated nine it seems every time I'm dream I'm in a nightmare of fiend livin' a world of mothers and queens and men would fight fare Hell Yea!
I wish I could, I wish I could never forget this whole damn world ain't shit I'm just a hood yo I change my life make my wife and get the chance for the pain and physical abuse, give her back her best years grab my chest hairs, pound my fist on the hard cement spark the scent, and cloud the sky till my heart's content repent and vow she be forgiven how could we be proud to live in a world which condemns man, child, to women child to women.
