

Break

Big Wreck

If I take your side
The truth will divide
What I can't decide
Is which half is mine
I'll put off this fight
For one more day
It's so hard to keep
Those images at bay

But I will bend
'Till I break
And I'll break down again

All the tricks I've tried
Between and mine
I've opened the vault
Of what I've left behind
So I've put those words
Into my mouth
I try as I might
To spit them out

And we'll bend
'Till we break
And we'll break down again

Of the past, I sighed
It justifies
You're crossing lines

We'll suspend our lives
Only half truths and alibis

I'll bend
'Till I break
And I'll break down again
Yeah first we'll bend
'Till we break
And we'll break down again
So let's bend
Let's bend
Let's break
Let's break down again
