

Remember

BigBang

Do you remember x3

A love gone bad is a crazy thing but how did it catch up to us. (I wish it'd go away) Sometimes it makes me question myself, what did I get into (but that's what love'd do) Cuz I don't even know who you are no more. And I can't even pick out your favorite stars no more

And I remember when I knew you, even better than you knew yourself.

(We both looked out for each other) For each other yeah

(In this world there was no other) There was no other no

(What happened to our love that) Even if nothin changes I just wanna remember ay

Remember when we fought for each other. (Do you remember)

All we cared about was our love (all we cared yaw)

Remember when the little bit mattered

All that what happened to us do you remember.

Remember when we fought for each other. (Do you remember)

All we cared about was our love (ooh)

Now I remember (ay)

One thing got in the (way)

Let's go back to the (day)

Do you remember

Do you ever reminisce of how excited you use to be (to see me)

Me the same with you, do you remember (we couldn't be taken away from each other)

And I would call you and chat all night

But now it's alright that just ain't right (no) We even let anyone and everyone get in to our business

We tried to control this (we both look out for each other)

We looked out for each other (In our world there was no other)

(what happened to our world that) Even if nothing changes

I just wanna remember ay

Remember when we fought for each other.

All we cared about was our love (remember when)

Remember when the little bit mattered (ohh)

All that what happened to us do you remember (do you remember)

Remember when we fought for each other (ohh) All we cared about was our love (all we cared about)

Now I remember (ay)

One thing got in the (way)

Let's go back to the (day)

Do you remember

Ay yo you use to be my partner, we use to be a team

Now I'm livin in the real while you livin in a dream

You use to be my queen, I use to be a king.

You use to go to bath with me and we was livin happily

Now actually, I was on top of the world

And along side with me, at the top was my girl

And our whole change come like Fall to December

But even if nothing changes (Even if nothin changes I just wanna remember)

Remember when we fought for each other. (Do you remember)

All we cared about was our love (all we cared yaw)

Remember when the itty bit mattered
All that what happened to us do you remember.
Remember when we fought for each other. (Do you remember)
All we cared about was our love (ooh)
Now I remember (ay)
One thing got in the (way)
Let's go back to the (day)
Do you remember Ay
