Sometimes I feel so lost S.O.S. all my lines are crossed. I bit e off more than I can chew. It's killing me it's killing you th ere's nothing that I'd rather do. It's got me now it's holding me. A sign of something good a sign I thought I'd never see. I try to keep it in my head. We'll you can kick my ass and burn y our books, but it won't change a word I've said. I quess I shou ld have seen it coming. It's in the smile on his face. Did you really think that this would be so easy? I think you made a big mistake. What went so wrong? Every action has reaction in this fucked up world that you created. Now you're head is so full o f negativity and shattered dreams. A world of noise you end up hating. It's got me now it's holding me. A sign of something go od a sign I thought I'd never see. I try to keep it in my head. Did you really think that this wo uld be so easy? I think you made a big mistake. What went so wr ong it's been too long. So just take it on the chin. It's who y ou are and what you do. Not who you were or what you have been. There's just one thing you should know. That I still care to w ork it out don't think about it let it go.
