

Hope

Bigwig

I wrote you a letter saying that I'm never coming back. Now I can be here by myself without you and no one else. Your such a waste of time but I'll be just fine. I saw a picture of you today I can't believe how much you've changed. So much time to soon too quick. Another reason for me to drink. I'm buried in my shirt what I can't see won't hurt. I hope I never see you again. Not after what you did or what you said. I bet you thought this story had a happy ending. I hope I never see you again.
