

Love Song For Jackie

Bill Anderson

He stopped at the bar on his way to the bandstand
To strengthen his courage and weaken his pride
On an old paper napkin he wrote me this message
"When the snow's over, Mister, could I see you outside?"

To look on his face said it's no laughing matter
I nodded and cautiously walked to the door
Clutching my sleeve he said, "Mister, it's Jackie
She left me and said she won't be back no more"

Please sing a love song for Jackie
Sing it on record and on the TV
She's always said you were her favorite singer
And she listened to you 'fore she listened to me

Please tell Jackie I love her, tell her I'm dying without her i t's true
Please sing a love song for Jackie
So Jackie wherever you are and whatever you're doing right now
I want you to know this song's for you

Jackie, it's wrong, don't you leave him
He can't live without you any fool can see
This is my love song for Jackie
Don't hurt him, Jackie you don't know how much he loves you Go back to him just don't ever tell him that you left him for m e