

When A Man Can't Get A Woman Off His Mind

Bill Anderson

I've been fighting with these sheets again can't make myself lie still

My pillowcase is soaking wet and yet I feel a chill

It takes all I can do these days to just survive the nights

It gets crazy when a man can't get a woman off his mind

When a man can't shake a memory he runs hot and cold and blind

He hates he then he loves her then he hates her one more time

Your love has such a grip on me it chokes me like a vine

Oh it's crazy when a man can't get a woman off his mind

I've been phoning you since eight o'clock it's almost four a.m.

My mind keeps painting pictures of you out loving him

I just crushed a Dixie cup for running out of wine

It gets crazy when a man can get a woman off his mind

Drives him crazy when a man can't get his woman off his mind

When a man can't shake
