

Midnight Train

Billie Jo Spears

I hear footsteps in the street below me just an echo in the cold and lonely rain
And my heart breaks with every step that's taken me
As he walk on out to me at midnight train
Midnight train midnight train I know you've always been on time
But just as once I wish you'd pass this town on by Cause if I had just one more day he might change his mind and stay
And those footsteps would be walking back to me

Oh how I love him with all the love that's in me
Oh I need him more than flowers need the rain
Gentle hands that just held me so tightly
Are reaching out to take that midnight train
Midnight train midnight train
And those footsteps would be walking back to me
