Billie Myers

Spiders on the warpath
Midnights in the air
Crawling homicidal
Laughing at my prayers

Bullets made of ice-cream
Float on opium
Perverting my sobriety
They shoot to kill because they can

Hurtful purple, blue impatience
Life's indifference is far too violent
Jaded green by jealousy
Author unknown

When you're walking on broken bones
And the skin your in doesn't feel like home
And your friends turn their backs to face you
All is lost, dust-to-dust
You're anonymous

Vampires, dressed as cowboys
Held hostage by the sun
Addicted to denial
Age is wasted on the young

Hurtful purple, blue impatience
Life's indifference is far too violent
Jaded green by jealousy
Author unknown

You're anonymous
Don't leave me alone
You're anonymous,
Don't leave me alone
