

No Regrets Allowed

Billie Myers

Take a look at the time
Yesterday's back again
Is there a ghost of a chance?
That we can ever be friends

Would you push me from your ivory tower?
Make me the target in your line of fire
Hell, well I'm not guilty

Take off the halo you're wearing
Tell Zeus that nobody's listening
Play god in somebody else's life
Be seen by invisible neighbors
Guilt's a waste and blame couldn't care less
I told you so
No regrets allowed

Tea and sympathy
Is that how you'd like me to be?
You left me naked, exposed
I'm holding your guarantee

Black and white your words are bleeding me dry
Where I have no breathing space
No right to reply
Hell, well I'm not guilty

Take off the halo you're wearing
Tell Zeus that nobody's listening
Play god in somebody else's life
Be seen by invisible neighbors
Guilt's a waste and blame couldn't care less
I told you so
No regrets allowed

Your can bury me alive in your memories
Skeletons awake
Let the shadows free
I'm not your enemy
Nooooo, I'm not your you're enemy

Take off the halo
No regrets allowed
No regrets allowed
