

Without My Consent

Billie Myers

So good of you to love me
So good of you to show me
So good of you to give unconditional love
Without my consent

So big of you to let me
Meet and greet all your best friends
So nice of you to phone me
To let me know we're over
5 months too late

Without my consent
Was I just another moment in a string of a one night stand
Someone who to take to you girl
Muck in me the ass in down dog land
Mugging me ass down dog land
Or was I just another singer
With the initials you had to chase afraid to catch

A hidden condom in a streetcar named desire
Strangers still will think friends

So good of you to love me
So good of you to show me (so good)
So good of you to give unconditional love
Without my consent

Without my consent
You made me feel not quite good enough
Another (sparkle) (spark)starched (between the) pristine sheets

Another (sparkle) (spark)starched (between the) pristine sheets

Espresso with the depth of how the knees

Oh yeah...
It's no thank you?BR>
(does it make you happy?)
So nice of you to bruise me
So nice of you to show me
Who I don't wanna be

Without my consent
Another friend anonymous you used to have sex with
Without my consent
You showed me what truly, madly, deeply?never meant

I maybe sound sarcastic
A little masochistic
I guess I don't have to like you
To still be me
