

Misfocusing

Billie Piper

If I was
The last person to know
How you cheated me
Did you think that I could let go
Of your betrayal easily?

Oh no
It went deep
I lost alot of sleep
Thinkin I had no one to turn to
Oh I, oh I

Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me
Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me
How you ever gonna see clearly?
Are you ever gonna know the real me?
I gotta stop the world, I gotta stop the world
Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me

I can take
All the misquotes and lies
Barbed wire bouquets
But you I never thought
Would stoop so low

I guess that goes to show
What you just dont know
Can really hurt you so
And I'm not sure
Who to trust anymore

Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me
Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me
How you ever gonna see clearly?
Are you ever gonna know the real me?
I gotta stop the world, I gotta stop the world
Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me

Now I can't deny
It stresses me like
No lover ever could
Makes me wonder why the world is such a
Jealous lover

Ask me what I've learned?
You gotta play the fool
To catch the wise
Act the mute
To hear the lies
What else?, what else? what else?

And the rest
Coming home
Is always the best
But a smile can hide a deadly weapon
And a friend you thought you could rely on

Don't you feel sorry for me baby?
Don't you feel sorry for me baby?
Oh I, oh I

Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me
Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me
How you ever gonna see clearly?
Are you ever gonna know the real me?
I gotta stop the world, I gotta stop the world
Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me

Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me
Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me
How you ever gonna see clearly?
Are you ever gonna know the real me?
I gotta stop the world, I gotta stop the world
Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me
