Misfocusing

If I was The last person to know How you cheated me Did you think that I could let go Of your betrayal easily? Oh no It went deep I lost alot of sleep Thinkin I had no one to turn to Oh I, oh I Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me How you ever gonna see clearly? Are you ever gonna know the real me? I gotta stop the world, I gotta stop the world Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me I can take All the misquotes and lies Barbed wire bouquets But you I never thought Would stoop so low I guess that goes to show What you just dont know Can really hurt you so And I'm not sure Who to trust anymore Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me How you ever gonna see clearly? Are you ever gonna know the real me? I gotta stop the world, I gotta stop the world Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me Now I can't deny It stresses me like No lover ever could Makes me wonder why the world is such a Jealous lover Ask me what I've learned? You gotta play the fool To catch the wise Act the mute To hear the lies What else?, what else? what else? And the rest Coming home Is always the best But a smile can hide a deadly weapon

And a friend you thought you could rely on

Billie Piper

Don't you feel sorry for me baby? Don't you feel sorry for me baby? Oh I, oh I

Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me How you ever gonna see clearly? Are you ever gonna know the real me? I gotta stop the world, I gotta stop the world Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me

Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me How you ever gonna see clearly? Are you ever gonna know the real me? I gotta stop the world, I gotta stop the world Gotta stop the world misfocusing on me
