Verse 1:

We've been kickin it for a while
And I've gotten used to havin you around babe
And even though, we move so slow
It's only fair that let you know.

A lot of your girlfriends be stressing me
Handing me down so tryin to go next to me
I hold my ground. I hold it dwon.
Tell you how, how I love my baby

Chorus:

I ain't creepin with the girl next door.
All I want is you girl, that's for sure
Don't be listening to what people say
Shoulda known better babe
I ain't thinking bout you.
Can'y you see I don't want to lose your love?
Oh girl. I got you yeah yeah.

Verse 2:

I never knew how deep it was.
Messed ae=round and I fell in love with a girl
Just one girl
That's all it really took to change my heart
Sexy lady, come close to me.
Wrap around your arms around my baby.
When you're near me, I get a rush
A feeling no other love could ever touch.

Chorus:

I ain't creepin with the girl next door.
All I want is you girl, that's for sure
Don't be listening to what people say
Shoulda known better babe
I ain't thinking bout you.
Can'y you see I don't want to lose your love?
Oh girl. I got you yeah yeah.
