

Eyes Wide Shut

Billy Idol

You call me crazy
As you call my name
But your temptations
Drive me insane

A golden silence
With the lights so low
An invitation that I'll never know

Queen of the scene
But you're so obscene
With your long black hair
And you just don't care

The tears I cried
And the truth I denied myself

You know I fell for you
With my eyes wide shut

The tears I cried
And the truth I denied myself
I should have walked away
With my eyes wide shut

Spiral staircase
And a flowing robe
Eyes of fire
That give me hope

But through the airways
A sign so clear
There's someone else that you hold dear

Changing your mind
In the blink of an eye
And forgettin' your lies
It was no surprise

The tears I cried
And the truth I denied myself
You know I fell for you
With my eyes wide shut

Tears I cried
And the truth I denied myself
I should have walked away
With my eyes wide shut

Worldwide chaos girl
People love and hate
A nationwide panic, yeah
And the future quakes

The social network
Betrayed my dreams
You with another guy

My mind starts to scream

Tears I cried
You know I fell for you
With my eyes wide shut

You call me crazy
As you call my name

The tears I cried
And the truth I denied myself
You know I fell for you

The tears I cried
