

How Hard Can It Be

Billy Joe Royal

Oh, I know all about it
I know where you've been
You can't hide it no longer
I been hearin' from friends
That you've been unfaithful
And it's killin' me
But I'll give you one chance to save our romance
How hard can it be

How hard can it be
Is it him or me
You better make up your mind
I'll ask one more time
How much will it take
Till you finally learn
Your lesson in love is takin' it's turn
How hard can it be

Do ya tell him the same things
Ya don't wanna hurt me
That ya just need some time
Before ya pack up and leave
Well girl, here's your chance
If ya wanna be free
You've had the best of my love, if that ain't enough
How hard can it be

How hard can it be
Is it him or me
You better make up your mind
I'll ask one more time
Well, how much will it take
Till you finally learn
Your lesson in love is takin' it's turn
How hard can it be
You had the best of my love, if that ain't enough
How hard can it be
