

Let It Rain

Billy Joe Royal

Can't touch a memory
But you reach out 'cause you know it's there
And love never dies at all
It's alive somewhere
You don't hear a heart break in the middle of the night
But you sure do feel the pain
And you can't see a teardrop fall in the pouring rain

If you lie about your feelings
Tell the truth, do they go away
And if you pray for tomorrow, um, what about today
If the skies are clear and you can't see a cloud
Will you stay inside again
Cause you can't see a teardrop fall in the pouring rain

Let it rain, let it rain
Hide the tears in my eyes
Let it rain, let it rain
Cause I need a disguise

Can't seem to forget you
Even though you're not around
Can I hide my heart so well
That it can't be found
Don't wanna fall again with somebody new
Cause your love still remains
No, you can't see a teardrop fall in the pouring rain

Let it rain, let it rain
Hide the tears in my eyes
Let it rain, let it rain
Cause I need a disguise
Let it rain, let it rain
Hide the tears in my eyes
Let it rain, let it rain
Cause I need a disguise
