

Good As Gone

Billy Ray Cyrus

You're just as good as gone,
You've been leaving for so long,
Ain't been yours, You ain't been mine,
It's been over for quite some time,
So go ahead walk on out the door,
You don't love me anymore,
We know that this just can't drag on,
It's too bad you're just as good as gone,

I see that you've made up your mind,
And goodbye's for good this time,
No need to fight no need to fuss,
It's too late for the two of us,
I feel so bad I feel so blue,
In my heart I know that we are through,
I'm losing you and oh lonely won,
It's obvious, you're just as good as gone,

You're just as good as gone,
You've been leaving for so long,
Ain't been yours, You ain't been mine,
It's been over for quite some time,
So go ahead walk on out the door,
You don't love me anymore,
We know that this just can't drag on,
It's too bad you're just as good as gone,

You're just as good as gone,
You've been leaving for so long,
Ain't been yours, You ain't been mine,
It's been over for quite some time,
So go ahead walk on out the door,
You don't love me anymore,
We know that this just can't drag on,
It's too bad you're just as good as gone,

It's so sad you're just as good as gone.
