Sudden Movements

Billy Talent

Well I'm scared of my reflection Is it mine or is it yours? And I swear I hear them knocking But there's no one at the door.

Don't think I'm losing my perspective 'Cause I know one thing for sure They've been watching, they've been listening Every whisper, every word

Your sudden movements, sudden movements Gonna give us all away No sudden movements, sudden movements Or they'll blow us all away

Terrified by information Who's the black sheep of the herd? I am the guardian of angels And they'll get what they deserve

So lock your children in the basement Keep a rifle by the door Don't be afraid of my intentions 'Cause I'm more afraid of yours

Your sudden movements, sudden movements Gonna give us all away No sudden movements, sudden movements Or they'll blow us all away

Your sudden movements, sudden movements Gonna give us all away No sudden movements, sudden movements Or they'll blow us all away

Blow us all away Blow us all away

Your sudden movements, sudden movements Gonna give us all away No sudden movements, sudden movements Or they'll blow us all away

Your sudden movements, sudden movements Gonna give us all away No sudden movements, sudden movements Or they'll blow us all away
